(December 2019) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) (Learn how and when to delete this message template) This is a list of characters that appear in RWBY, the original anime-style CG-animated web series created by Rooster Teeth Productions. According to the creator of the series Monty Uma, the name of each character is tied to a certain color. There are also other teams with their unification name in the form of abbreviations that are also tied to color. The creation and concept of Oum developed the characters with the help of artist Ein Lee. Oum perused Lee's Deviant Art work and asked if she wanted to do some projects. The only rule provided for the series was everyone had to be a badass. Lee also said that some of the characters were understood between her and Oum, where he would provide a description then beyond her sketches some ideas, or vice versa. Others were brainstorming with other people. Characters use a design inspired by classic fairy-tale characters. Each character has a bound color, and these are the first letters of these colors, red, white, black and yellow, that give the series its name. Lee said that people's search, Google image searches and fashion were inspiration: How people dress up to the smallest details - gives a lot of subtle (and some not very subtle) hints about who they are. It's all about giving the characters a unique and memorable look that people can still identify with. The mind also drew inspiration from Final Fantasy video games and ridiculously disgusting weapons. The series was written by Coome, along with fellow Rooster Teeth collaborators Miles Moon and Kerry Shawcross. At first, um was concerned about a story that focused on female characters, predominantly a male team, but said they were able to develop female characters well. The main thing The RWBY Team RWBY (pronounced ruby) consists of four Students of Beacon Academy.Vol 1 Each participant is associated with color and hints at a character in a fairy-tale world reflected in their names and personalities. Ruby Rose Lindsay Jones, the voice of Ruby Rose, voiced: Lindsey Jones, a 15-year-old protagonist who usually dresses in a black dress and red cape, using the Crescent Rose braid as a melee weapon and as a high-caliber sniper rifle. In volume 7, the blade of the scythe can rotate on the rifle. Vol. 7, Ch. 2 and 4 She also develops a friendly rivalry with Harriet, and these are the first letters of these colors, red, white, black and yellow, that give the series its name.
